Coach Maglione is entering his tenth year at SCC. Maglione is beginning his seventh season as head coach. Prior to being named head coach, Maglione was the associate head coach for two seasons, where his primary duty was to oversee the pitching staff and its development. In three years Maglione’s pitching staff won 183 games, averaging sixty wins a year.

Before coming to Sac City, coach Maglione was the head coach at Napa Valley College for 14 years, compiling a record of 456-224. He was named the State Coach of the Year in 1988 and earned the Bay Valley Conference honor six times.

In each of Coach “Mags” four seasons at the helm, the Panthers have won the BVC title. For his efforts he has been named the BVC Coach-of-the-Year three consecutive times, and in 1998 was both the state Coach-of-the-Year and the National J.C. Coach-of-the-Year.

Coach “Mags” graduated from Chico State with a B.A. in Social Welfare, and earned a master’s degree in physical education, from Saint Mary’s College. More impressive than his list of professional accomplishments, Coach Maglione is especially proud to be a cancer survivor. He had a six-year battle with hairy cell leukemia and has been in remission for ten years. Coach Maglione lives with his wife, Sharleen, and has three adult children (Jennifer, Jeannie, Jason) and one grandson, Lazarus.
